

New Home in Glory

2nd Corinthians 5:8

Music & Lyrics by Paul S. Paoli

Grandpa died just three days ago.
He lived to the age of ninety-five.
And all the family gathered here to pay their respects,
and to say their final good-byes.
The preacher prayed then he opened the Book,
and read from Psalm twenty-three.
And as I listened to those words of truth
this thought came to me.

(Chorus)

*One day my body will be lying in that box and they'll close that lid down on me.
Don't look for me there I will be with my King,
there in my new home in Glory.*

Our lives pass by in the blink of an eye.
Here today and tomorrow we're gone.
So many live like this life won't end.
They'll one day see they're wrong.
But where O' death is your sting and your power?
Where is your victory over me?
Jesus Christ has risen from the grave,
And He'll raise up all who believe.

(Chorus)
