

Satisfy My Soul

Psalm 107:8-9

Music & Lyrics by Paul S. Paoli

Some folks value diamonds, some folks value gold.
Some folks value youth, cause they're afraid of growing old.
But all the earthly treasures in this world cannot compare, to knowing that You are my God and I am in Your care.

(Chorus)

*So I run to You, cause now I know the truth.
Nothing else can satisfy my soul.
I stand in awe of You and all You've brought me through.
No one else can satisfy my soul.
Lord only You can satisfy my soul.*

Sometimes I grow weary, sometimes my heart strays.
Sometimes earthly pleasures lead me into worldly ways.
But when my heart is restless, without peace its then I know, the things of earth can't satisfy this hunger in my soul.

(Chorus)

I'm thankful for Your mercy. I'm thankful for Your grace.
I'm thankful for the way You give me strength to run this race.
Please help me by Your Spirit, to live for You each day.
Ignite the fire within my heart to worship You and pray.

(Chorus)
